

Edinburgh University Lawn Tennis Club

January 2014

Welcome back to everyone returning from their Christmas and New Year holidays, here's hoping for an equally successful semester as the first.

Unfortunately it's that time of the year again when the Edinburgh climate starts affecting out tennis sessions. Make sure you check the Facebook page for updates before setting off for a session as any cancellations will be posted on there. We will try our best to continue the full coaching programme, even the snow didn't stop a busy cardio tennis session on Wednesday!

Socials-

January has already seen two big tennis socials. First on the calendar was the 'Grand Slam Flat Crawl'. It was great to see new faces getting to know the regular members of our club. If you can't remember much of the night, our social sec Tatty has helpfully immortalised your antics on paper by writing a Facebook social report. You might want to check your name doesn't feature!

The second social was the Sports Union Ball. Always promising to be one of the biggest nights of the sporting calendar, this year didn't disappoint. El presidente himself did us all a favour by winning a competition entitling us to discounted next day Snax breakfasts!!

BUCS Competition-

A selection of Edinburgh's top team players descended on Leeds to take part in the BUCs qualifying tournament. Unfortunately none of our players made it through the three rounds of qualifying to make it through to the main draw, however some excellent tennis was played and confidence within the team has been boosted moving forward. To look forward to in the coming months...

CROATIA TOUR!!!

May's trip to Croatia was extremely popular. Well done to everyone who managed to secure a place, and commiserations to those who just missed out, there's always next year! For those who managed to secure a place, you should have received a confirmation email and paid your £110 deposit. Please message the club ASAP if this has not happened.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS!!!

Make sure you have entered this year's club championships. The tournament is open to EVERYONE, all you need to be is an LTA member (which is free to sign up for!). Find sign up details on the Facebook page.
